Public Records Notice

Please be aware that any email address provided for official notice purposes may be considered part of the Association's Official Records and may be subject to inspection by other Members to the extent required by Florida law.

Pursuant to the Declaration for Rialto and applicable Florida law, I/we hereby consent to receive official notices from Rialto Community Association, Inc. by electronic transmission in lieu of, or in addition to, U.S. Mail, where permitted.

This consent applies to notices including, but not limited to:

- Annual and special meeting notices
- Budget and assessment notices
- Election and voting materials
- General Association communications
- Compliance and violation notices (where permitted by law)

I/We acknowledge and agree that:

1. This consent is voluntary and may be revoked at any time by written notice to the Association. Owners may revoke this consent at any time by providing written notice to the Association or contacting the Association's management.
2. It is my/our responsibility to maintain a current and valid email address with the Association.
3. Notices sent to the email address listed above shall be deemed delivered in accordance with Florida law.
4. The Association is not responsible for non-delivery due to spam filters, full mailboxes, or incorrect email addresses.
5. Upon revocation of this consent, notices will be provided in accordance with the Association Documents and applicable law.
